

UniPie

A universal pie menu system

Examples

In the following pages I'd like to show a few typical examples where pie menus could make life easier.

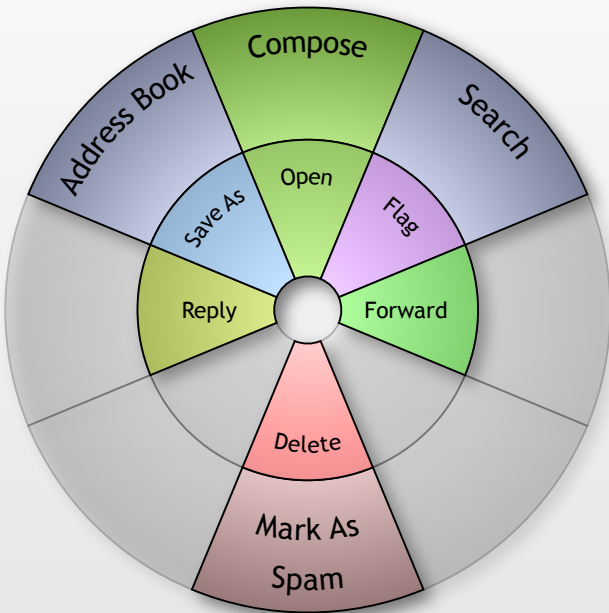

Here the pie menu hotkey is meant to be the right mouse button: holding it invokes the pie while releasing it on a slice executes the action. Letting go of RMB in the center hole makes the usual right click context menu show up.

Browsing

E-mail

Image editing

Vector editing

File management

Application management

